

The Robert Lee Humber Award

The 2006 Robert Lee Humber Award was presented to Roger Kammerer for his outstanding contributions to the understanding of Greenville's historic heritage. Anyone who has spent time in Greenville knows that Mr. Kammerer is a treasure of information on everything Greenville. His research and writing on the history of Greenville and Pitt County has uncovered and recorded precious stories from the past. Mr. Kammerer conducts the annual walking tour of historic Uptown, which supports the ongoing revitalization of the central city by enhancing pride in local heritage and by highlighting outstanding preservation projects.
